In Chain of Evidence Against Actress

FORGED BY PROSECUTION AT TODAY'S TRIAL

Claim Impossible for Young to Have Killed Himself.

PRESENCE OF LOVER'S CLOTHES

And Wiggling Skeleton in Court Al- most Too Much for the Fair Defendant.

New York, Nov. 23.—The prosecution in the case of the Floradora actress, Nan Patterson, on trial for killing her lover, "Caesar" Young, forged an important link in its circumstantial chain today by producing testimony which tended to show that the course of the bullet precluded the possibility of the bookmaker shooting himself. Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon in spite of a most searching cross-examination, declared that the bullet did not touch the second rib and that it went downward and backward until it struck the spine and was deflected upward. The prosecution will produce pistol experts to show that Young, squeezed in the narrow confines of a hansom cab on the right hand side could not have shot himself holding a revolver over his left shoulder. This is a vital point in the prosecution's case and the defense is prepared to contest it vigorously. Additional medical testimony was heard today bearing on the evidence given by Dr. O'Hanlon.

Prosecutor Rand said this morning that he did not think he would call Mrs. Young, the widow of the bookmaker, or John Millin, racing partner of Young until next week.

Nan Patterson has spent many a bitter hour in the trial and she shows it. Her full round face is bloodless, and dark blue rings under the eyes tell the story of many nervous collapses. It is not the weight of testimony which oppresses her, she told her old father today, but the gruesome and ghastly exhibits in the case—her lover's clothes, stained with his blood, the revolver, the bullet and the wiggling skeleton representing the frame of Young. All these have shocked and crushed the girl, and when they are reproduced she verges on the point of utter collapse in open court and hastily drops her veil to hide her face.

Miss Patterson, at times, gives evidence of her condition by complaining peevishly of unimportant things. Yesterday she thought the crowd in the court room should be ejected, though at the time there were many vacant seats in the room, the court officers only permitting those to enter who had passes. This morning she sent word to the court attendants that her chair in the trial room was too high for her. The legs of the chair were sawed off today and shortened by two inches. Miss Patterson wore her usual black dress. She looked careworn and weary and when the skeleton was brought in when court opened she lowered her eyes and turned to her father.

Dr. O'Hanlon, coroner's physician, was put under cross examination when Justice Davis opened court this morning. Counsel Levy after some questions, as to general anatomy brought out the fact that a man's right arm was generally one-eighth to a quarter of an inch longer than his left arm.

"Did you make a careful examination of the wound?"

"Yes, I was very careful to examine the wound."

"What kind of probe did you use?"

"A flexible one. The bullet went over the second rib and took a straight course to the spinal vertebrae. The bullet in its course created some loose tissue. The only hole in the lungs was made by the bullet."

"Is it not possible for a bullet to strike a rib and not fracture it, at the same time not affecting the periosteum?"

"I do not think so. It did not in this case. A bullet could strike a rib, and not fracture but the periosteum would be affected."

"Did you examine the second rib of the deceased?"

"Yes, I did most carefully."

"At that time, you did not regard it as a case of homicide?"

"I did not."

"If you had regarded it at that time as one of homicide, would you have made a more careful examination than you did?"

"I would not have. I made a most careful examination."

"Had it been a case of murder would you have acted differently?"

"I would have made a more detailed report to my memoranda."

Dr. O'Hanlon being questioned said that the bone showed no evidence of having been struck. Witness admitted that he had used no magnifying glass but the condition of the bone could be determined by the naked eye.

"Would a missile show any evidences of deflection?"

"It would."

"Did you examine the bullet which killed Young and what did it show?"

"I examined it and found evidences of contact."

Dr. O'Hanlon told of taking pieces of skin from Young's finger on which were black marks. He thought they were powder marks.

Pawabroker Stern is ill with peritonitis and unable to attend the trial. Stern sold the revolver with which Young was killed. The court ordered that he attend as soon as possible. Dr. Riggan, the hospital physician, indicated the course of the bullet by demonstrating with a skeleton. Dr. Dederic, former health commissioner, said he could not determine whether the marks on the skin from Young's finger were made by powder.

B. & O. OPERATOR ASSAULTED AND BADLY HURT

Arthur Householder Now a Fugitive.

Victim Alleges He Was Felled by a Heavy Blow Upon the Back of His Head.

Cambridge, O., Nov. 23.—Charles Lowry, a B. & O. telegraph operator at Mineral Spring, and who is a cripple, was murderously assaulted at the B. & O. depot, and Arthur Householder, who is charged with the assault, is a fugitive from justice. There are several stories of the affair. One is to the effect that Lowry was cutting up with some of the news boys at the depot, when Householder, in passing made some remark about playing with children, which made Lowry angry, and he replied, after which Householder struck him, knocking him down, the back of his head hitting the pavement with such force as to render him unconscious.

Lowry stated that he did not know why he had been assaulted, that he did not know Householder and had never had trouble with him, that Householder walked up and struck him in the back of the head.

Immediately after striking Lowry, Householder jumped on a passing B. & O. freight train and made his escape before the arrival of the officers. The injured man was picked up by some men standing nearby and placed on a baggage truck. Dr. C. A. Moore and Dr. W. N. Bradford were called and after working over the man for some time succeeded in arousing him and he was taken to the Depot Hotel. He was unconscious for several hours, but now appears to be much improved and is able to talk. He claims not to know why he had been assaulted.

Householder is well known to the police, and it is said has been in trouble a number of times before. All the authorities in the surrounding cities and towns have been furnished with a description of the man, with instructions to arrest him if found.

PRISONERS

Removed From Lexington to Louisville For Safe Keeping—A Clash is Feared.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 23.—Garfield Smith and John and Ed Taylor, colored, were taken under heavy guard to Yarnall station, seven miles from the city, and there put aboard a Chesapeake and Ohio train for Louisville, where they will be kept until the authorities believe it safe for them to appear for trial here. Rev. R. O. Kirkwood started a fund to buy a home for the widow and 10 orphans of the murdered white man, and an effort to raise a large sum will be made. The finding of six negroes armed with shotguns on the outskirts of the city shows there is an ugly feeling among a certain element of the negroes, which may lead to clashes with the whites.

The regiment of which the baby Carewitch is colonel has left for the front.

MR. LAWSON

Issues a Statement Throwing Little Light on Nature of the Suit Against Him.

Boston, Nov. 23.—Mr. Lawson, the author, issued a signed statement which throws little light upon the origin or nature of the suit or suits brought against him. Mr. Lawson refers to pressure being brought at Washington in an effort to exclude from the mails his writings on finance. He expresses the opinion that such a proceeding would not be permitted by the postal authorities. He says: "In regard to the suits and rumors of suits, civil and criminal, brought and to be brought against me by 'Standard Oil,' the insurance companies and individuals, because of my story, 'Frenzied Finance,' I can simply say: 'Bring them along one and all and I will be found on hand prepared to give battle to a finish, giving no odds or mercy and asking for none.' I have been telling a few raw truths, and in this age of dollars no man will be allowed to distribute truths about financial rascality without paying the price."

DETECTIVE

Arrested on a Charge of Perjury and is Sent to Jail in Default of Bail.

New York, Nov. 23.—Joseph Jacobs, a detective of District Attorney Jerome's staff, who secured the evidence against Richard A. Canfield, was arrested by order of District Attorney Jerome on a charge of perjury. He was held in $2,000 bail and committed to the Tombs in default of bail. The arrest was based on a confession he made to Philip J. Britt and General Benjamin F. Tracy, who are associated as counsel for Canfield and his alleged manager, David Bucklin. Mr. Jerome says Jacobs asked them that as the price of his confession he be supplied with sufficient funds by Canfield to take him out of the jurisdiction of the courts.

CONFERENCE

Over the New York Senatorship—Sen- ator Depew Has Many Written Pledges.

New York, Nov. 23.—The selection of a United States senator by the newly elected legislature of this state to succeed at the expiration of term of Senator Depew was the subject of conferences between Governor Odell, ex-Governor Frank Black and Senator Depew. Governor Odell assured both Senator Depew and ex-Governor Black in most positive terms that he would not be a candidate for the senatorship, and furthermore that he would not take any part in any canvass by any one nor interest himself in the contest. It developed at the conference that Senator Depew has the written pledges of a majority of the legislature to vote for him to succeed himself.

Drifting Barges Picked Up.
Highland Light, Mass., Nov. 23.—The barges Buffalo and Burden, which broke adrift from the tug Lehigh Sunday night, were found 15 miles east of Highland Light. The tug proceeded with them to Boston. All on board were well and the barges met with no mishap.

Struck by Train.
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 23.—At Wartrace, Tenn., a passenger train struck a buggy containing three occupants. Miss Sadie Waite, 16, was instantly killed, and her brother, 12, was so badly mangled he can not recover. The other occupant escaped unhurt.

Destroyed by Fire.
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 23.—The paint factory of the H. B. Davis Paint company, Hightown, Md., was almost entirely destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at about $70,000.

VICTIM

OF FATAL HUNTING ACCIDENT IS JERRY DONNELLY.

An Eighteen Years Old Boy From New Straitsville—Donnelly Killed by His Own Gun.

Lancaster, O., Nov. 23.—Blown from a stump and literally disemboweled by the contents of both barrels of his own shotgun, the 18-year-old son of Jerry Donnelly of New Straitsville, Perry county, is dead as a result of one of the most horrible accidents of the hunting season. The accident occurred on the Isaac Blosser farm near Bremen.

The young man with several companions, started out hunting and Donnelly climbed a stump to survey an adjoining field. His gun, with both barrels at full cock, was leaning against the stump.

He attempted to lift it by grasping the end of the barrels, at the same time drawing it toward him. The triggers caught in a vine and both barrels were discharged, the charges taking effect in the abdomen.

JAPS

Are Now Bombarding Town of Shahkepo

PORT ARTHUR BUILDINGS ARE ARE SET ON FIRE

Owing to Bombardment of Jap Naval Guns.

VERY BIG ORDER FOR CANNON

The Russians Report Mikado's Attacks Unsuccessful—Fighting South of Mukden Reported.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 23.—(Bulletin)—General Sakharoff reports that the Japanese are today severely bombarding the village of Shahkepo.

Port Arthur Buildings Burn.

Washington, Nov. 23.—An official report to the Japanese legation from Tokyo, today says:

"The Port Arthur army reports that the buildings near the arsenal caught fire about noon on Nov. 22, owing to the bombardment of our naval guns and that at 9:40 p. m. they were still burning."

Big Order for Cannon.

Naples, Nov. 23.—The newspaper Mattino prints a private message from Berlin today stating that extraordinary activity is on at the Krupp factory at Essen. Twenty-seven thousand men are working day and night filling huge orders of cannon and projectiles. The destination of the munitions of war are kept secret.

Dispatches for Czar.

London, Nov. 23.—The Tsing Tsun correspondent of the Standard wires to day that a life boat has reached Weihai-wei from Port Arthur landing a Russian officer who is believed to have dispatched to the Czar from General Stoessel.

Turning Move Fails.

Mukden, Nov. 23.—The Japanese lost 500 men in the attacks of Nov. 17 and 18 and were evidently disheartened. When they renewed the attack Nov. 19 the Japanese sent out several battalions from Double Humped hill, but their movements lacked decision. The Russians opened fire from Poutloff (Lone Tree) hill and neighboring eminences. Shells burst in the midst of the advancing Japanese columns and quickly checked them. The Japanese also tried a turning operation at Chamlinda, but there also they were dispersed. There was a slight encounter Nov. 20. Russian scouts penetrated a short distance into the Japanese lines, but without much result.

During the last two days the Chinese have been moving in large numbers from the east northward, taking their wives, children and household goods in order to save them from the Japanese. The Chinese complain that the whole country between the Russian and Japanese lines is laid waste. Not a single dwelling is standing. The earth dwellings of the soldiers are comfortable.

Defenses of Port Arthur.

Mukden, Nov. 23.—Reports of the death of General Kuroki persist in spite of denials, and are revived by Chinese coming from the Japanese camps. First Lieutenant Schupkoff, who has just arrived from Port Arthur, reports that the Russians have laid out three lines of defenses, which the Japanese must capture before they can reach the city, after which the Russians can retire to the coast forts, which are the strongest of all. The garrison, which comprises more than 4,000 men, is in good spirits. Lieutenant Schupkoff believes that the fortress can hold out at least until the end of January.

Japanese Imports.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—The collector of the port of San Francisco says an exceptionally large amount of Japanese goods is coming here, and that the increase of importations has been so large customs house officials can not handle the goods. The occasion of the exceptionally heavy importations is that the Japanese people are offering their manufactures at low prices in order to raise money for carrying on the war with Russia.

Blizzard Still Rages.

London, Nov. 23.—The blizzard, which yesterday raged over the north of England, continues today. Traffic is badly disorganized. The blizzard is now spreading to the south. There is a heavy fall of snow at many points.

DOZEN SHOT

In a Fight in West Virginia Wilds. Residence Wrecked by Mob—Re- ward Offered.

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 23.—The family of John Wallace and the Curry brothers engaged in a deadly fray near Yorkville. The Curry brothers made a demand for liquor at Wallace's saloon. They were refused because, it is alleged, they were already intoxicated. When the Curry brothers began shooting, Wallace closed his saloon. Later the Curry brothers, with others, went to Wallace's home, demanding that Wallace come out. When Mrs. Wallace stated that her husband was not home the crowd broke in the windows. Mrs. Wallace then fired into the crowd, fatally wounding Thomas Curry. Mrs. Wallace was shot in the limb and shoulder. Wallace made his escape to the village of Yorkville. All of his live stock was killed by the mob. It is estimated that about 500 shots were exchanged and that 10 members of the mob were badly injured. A reward has been offered of $1,000 for the apprehension of any member of the mob.

HOLD UP

In a Western Saloon During a Turkey Raffle, But Robbers Got Only Twenty Dollars.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 23.—During a turkey raffle in a saloon at Columbia Heights, a suburb of Minneapolis, three masked men rode up, dismounted, entered the saloon and covered 14 men with their guns, ordering them to hold up their hands. All obeyed except the bartender of the saloon, who immediately reached for his revolver. As he did so a shot rang out, the bartender, E. C. Mingo, being shot in the face. This started a general fusillade of shots, one of which instantly killed a young man, Alfred King, aged 20. The robbers only secured $20, then made for their horses and rode away.

PISTOL FOUND

With Which the Killing of the Weber Family at Auburn, Calif., Was Committed.

Auburn, Cal., Nov. 23.—The preliminary examination of Adolph Weber practically ended with the sensation of the whole trial—the dramatic presentation in court of the pistol with which the deed was evidently committed. It was found on one of the sills under a barn on the Weber place. The barn stands on the side of a hill near the house, and on the underside a person can creep under it. The weapon is a 32-caliber pistol. When examined four chambers were found empty and one loaded. The pistol was smeared with blood, and on one of the staves some hair is stuck fast, as if it might be the weapon with which the boy was beaten. Half way between the cylinder and the muzzle are to be plainly seen the imprint of two bloody fingers.

Terrell, United States army, retired, one of the oldest and best known citizens of this city, and a veteran of the civil war, is dead, aged 74 years. SCHEME

TO MEET AND OVERCOME DE- MAND FOR TARIFF REVISION.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw An- nounces Drawback Plan—A Com- promise Proposition.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Alarmed by the strength which the demand for tariff revision is gaining, and which threatens his own standing as a leader of the Iowa "stand-patters," Secretary of the Treasury Shaw comes forward with a scheme of compromise which he hopes will meet the situation and help to stave off any tariff tinkering in the near future.

Broadly stated, the secretary's position is for a wide extension of the system of drawbacks on raw material imported from abroad, which is paid up in this country into finished articles, and then exported in that form. The secretary believes that by the extension of drawbacks all the purposes sought to be served by Republicans who demand a revision of the tariff would be realized and the disturbance of business inseparable from tariff revision avoided.

In this way, the secretary says, the American workman would get work at his old wages, the manufacturer would have his protection in the home market, and he would not be handicapped in the foreign market, as he is at present, by the duties he is compelled to pay on the imported material he uses in his business.

It is plain that besides opening up an important field for trade on the government Secretary Shaw's scheme for extending the drawback system would involve the employment of a very large number of additional men in the customs service to protect the revenues.

The opportunities for fraud have always been a strong objection to the drawback system in its present rather narrow use in this country.

But Secretary Shaw and the other "stand-patters" are willing to take long chances on fraud if they can head off the demand for tariff revision.

Voluntary Liquidation.
Wooster, O., Nov. 23.—The Wooster National bank went into voluntary liquidation today.

A. D. Lynch was today appointed receiver of the bank.

Socialist Resolutions Defeated.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Two resolutions introduced by Delegate Victor Berger, leader of the Socialists, were presented for consideration of the American Federation of Labor. One of these provided for the abolishment of the militia as it now exists in the United States and the substitution of the Swiss system. The convention defeated the measure. The second Socialist resolution asked the federation to go on record as being in favor of petitioning congress to pass a bill providing for an old-age pension for workmen. This measure was also defeated.

MCKINLEY

MEMORIAL PLANS LIKELY TO BE CHANGED.

Trustees Inspect the Design at Meet- ing in New York—The Money Needed Not Raised.

New York, Nov. 23.—At a meeting held here of the national trustees of the McKinley Memorial association, who have in their charge the erection of the McKinley monument in Canton, O., the design presented by the official architect, H. Van Buren McGonigle, was inspected. The appointment of the architect, who had been selected by a committee consisting of R. S. Peabody of Boston, Waller Cook and Daniel Chester French of New York, was ratified by the committee, after which the plans were minutely inspected. At the close of the meeting it was stated that the sum needed had not been raised, and that changes which may be necessary will be made for financial rather than artistic reasons. The drawings are said to show a massive structure, unlike either the Grant monument in New York or the Garfield monument in Cleveland. Its situation on the top of a hill renders a beautiful approach possible, and the opportunities offered gave the architect an idea which, it is said, would require more money than the trustees have in hand. They now have about $550,000, and need about $50,000 to carry out the plans as they wish. Among those present at the meeting were Judge William R. Day, president, and Governor Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, treasurer.

AIRSHIP

Remained in Air Only 45 Minutes, as an Accident Rendered the Motor Useless.

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—After remaining in the air for 45 minutes, only for a brief period of which it was propelled by its own power, the "Montana Meteor," the airship designed and constructed by Thomas Benbow of Columbus, Mont., was brought safely to the ground in an open field three miles southeast of the world's fair aerodrome. The airship was navigated by the inventor, who stated after the flight that he considered it very successful in light of the accident that happened to his machinery. A leak in the gasoline tank allowed all the fluid to escape, and rendered his motor useless shortly after he had started the flight.

Watchman Stoned.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 23.—Night Watchman Welsh, at the Marlhead quarries of the Kelly Island Line and Transport company where the strike is on, was stoned last night and forced to leave his post. Welsh was on duty at the pumping station which supplies water for the Lakeside and Marlhead railway and fire protection for the village. The strikers have threatened to take the engineers and firemen out of the pumping station. This would leave the village without fire protection. Mayor Berwein closed all saloons and swore in extra policemen in anticipation of trouble.

ARREST

Of the Head of Foundry Workers Union

ON CHARGES PREFERRED BY CINCINNATI POLICE

Striking Molders in Queen City Are Apprehended.

MURDER AMONG ALLEGATIONS

Plot to Blow Up Two Foundries is Said to Have Been Discovered by Officers.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 23.—(Bulletin)—President Valentine of the Foundry Workers' Union, was arrested here this noon on charges preferred by the Cincinnati police.

Cincinnati Nov. 23.—The cases of Fred Bauhauser and John Hook, who are charged with aiding and abetting the malicious destruction of property in connection with the molders' strike, were continued to December this morning. The case of Eugene Taylor was laid over until Saturday, when Thomas Bracken, charged with aiding and abetting murder and who was arrested in Detroit will be placed on trial. Chief Milliken wired the police at Cleveland to place Jos. F. Valentine, president of the International Union of Iron Molders of North America under arrest on the charge of aiding and abetting the malicious destruction of property.

Cincinnati, Nov. 23.—Six persons are under arrest here charged with divers misdeeds in connection with the strike of union molders of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport. They are: William Patton, alias Friend; Eugene Trainer and Thomas Bracken, all charged with murder; Fred Bauhauser, Jr., charged with malicious destruction of property, and Fred Bauhauser, Sr., and John Hook, charged with aiding and abetting the destruction of property.

A warrant has also been issued for Joseph F. Valentine, the president of the Iron Molders' Union of North America, but as he is out of the city the service could not be had on him. Valentine telegraphed from Cleveland he would be here on Wednesday afternoon. The headquarters of the iron molders' union are in this city, and it is claimed that President Valentine has been directing the strike that has been in progress in Cincinnati, Covington and Newport for several months. During that time there have been disturbances at different foundries and on the streets of the three cities. On Oct. 7 Samuel Weakley, a nonunion molder, was killed, and Frank Brown, who accompanied Weakley, narrowly escaped from strikers, who assaulted them. The past few days the situation became more threatening around the foundries and attempts were made to blow up two of them with dynamite, one in this city and the other in Newport, Ky. No arrests have been made in Newport, although the situation is more threatening there than at any other locality. The arrest of father and son in this city charged with dynamiting the Eureka foundry, and their alleged confessions implicating others, promise sensational developments. Charles F. Waltz, secretary, and Charles F. Williams, attorney for the Employers' association of Cincinnati, and Commissioners Briggs and McClintock of the National Founders' association, who secured Superintendent E. S. Reed and a large force of detectives from Chicago, are still working on different cases involved in the protracted strike, and claim that officials of both the international and the local unions will be involved in charges of aiding and abetting lawlessness.

The New Model Tri-Process

$18.00

SEVEN CENTS A DAY

Running both burners wide open for 12 hours a day the cost will average the above named amount. It is impossible to state the cost exactly to a fraction of a cent, since with varying gas pressures, imperfect plumbing, uncertain gas meters, the conditions under which the stove is used are different, so that we give the maximum amount that it will cost to run the Tri-Process. This is all the gas that can be used in twelve hours. However, in moderate weather it must be remembered that the full capacity of both burners is not required so that this amount may be reduced one-half.

SAILING THE SKIES.

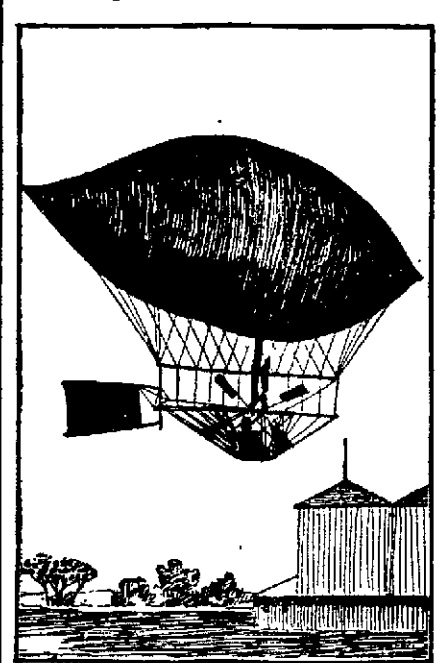

FINE SPECTACLE AFFORDED BY AERIAL CRAFT AT WORLD'S FAIR.

Airship Trials in Competition For $100,000 Prize Provide Novel Sight. The California Arrow and Its Pilot, Knabenshue—The Benbow Airship.

When Teunysen in "Locksley Hall" wrote of

The nation's airy navies
Grappling in the central blue, he did not refer to the airship races at the St. Louis world's fair, but his allusions to "argosies of magic sails" and "pilots of the purple twilight" almost fit the case of the aerial voyages now exciting so much attention. The ships that are launched from the aerodrome of the aeronautic concourse at the exposition in St. Louis sail forth on cruises through the air as if to prove the truth of the poet's prophecy of "all the wonder that would be." The various navigators of the cerulean blue now assembled on the banks of the Mississippi covet a prize of $100,000 offered by the exposition to the winner of the airship races.

BENBOW AIRSHIP METEOR

The California Arrow, the invention and the property of Thomas S. Baldwin of Oakland, Cal., has made some most sensational flights from the fair grounds with A. Roy Knabenshue of Toledo, O., at the rudder. The airship obeys her rudder so perfectly that Knabenshue was able to sail up into the wind and direct his craft this way or that almost as though he were sailing a yacht upon the water. Several times he has described the figure 8 and performed other difficult evolutions a thousand feet or so in the air. On one occasion the airship was about to be stable in the aerodrome it got away and sailed up out of sight in the gathering dusk of evening. For a moment the owner stood wringing his hands, thinking his chances of winning $100,000 had gone a glimmering, but the ship was found next day anchored in a cornfield.

The California Arrow has a cigar shaped gas bag fifty-two feet long, with a capacity of 8,000 cubic feet. The car is forty feet long and contains a gasoline engine of seven horsepower weighing sixty-six pounds. This drives the propeller, which is eleven feet from tip to tip and has two silk blades. Mr. Baldwin has been studying for thirty years on the airship problem. Knabenshue, who has shown so much nerve in the command of the ship, is the son of the editor of the Toledo Blade. He is an electrical worker who was employed on the fair grounds in connection with the aeronautic concourse and is not a professional aeronaut.

The Meteor, which is owned by T. C. Benbow of Columbus, Mont., was invented and built by him with the collaboration of H. J. Wells of the same place, is larger than the California Arrow and of quite a different pattern. The gas bag is seventy-four feet long, with a capacity of 14,000 cubic feet. It will carry a weight of 900 pounds. In the car is a ten-horsepower gasoline engine, and this works a propelling apparatus consisting of two wheels, one on each side of the car. Mr. Benbow has been working on the plans for this airship for twelve years.

Among other competitors for the grand prize is a French aeronaut, H. Hippolyte Francou. The prize will be awarded the competitor whose average speed during his three fastest trips is greatest.

Or is this yours to the right?

Good. Only look out for dandruff! It leads straight to baldness. But there's use trying now, for Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff, keeps the scalp clean and healthy, and checks falling hair.

The officials of the House of Representatives have just finished the compilation of the list of members of the Fifty-ninth Congress, which shows that the Republicans will have a majority of 118. This is a much larger majority than was expected on the eve of the election, and is the largest the Republicans have ever had in the House, although the Democrats had a larger majority in the Fifty-fourth Congress, elected in 1874, and which elected Samuel J. Randall speaker after the decease of Michael C. Kerr, of Indiana. In the Fifty-second Congress, 1891-93, the Democrats had a majority of 140, but Harrison was President and the Senate was Republican. In the Fifty-fourth Congress, 1895-97, the Republicans had a majority of 133 and controlled the Senate, but Cleveland was President. The Fifty-first Congress, which passed the McKinley act, had a working majority of only seven, while in the Fifty-fifth, which passed the Dingley act, the Republican majority over Democrats and Populists was 42.

Germany's theatrical censor is in this country to learn what he can about theaters and has a word to offer on methods of safeguarding the lives of patrons. He says:

After our theatrical theater fire in Chicago many changes were made, at my suggestion and order, in the Berlin theaters. In every Berlin theater a squad of firemen comes to the house one hour before the curtain goes up. They inspect the curtains, the fire appliances, the stage accessories, the lighting apparatus and the exits. If anything is found wrong the curtain cannot go up until it is made right. Nor can a play begin until the examination has been made. The firemen remain until after the last of the people have left the house.

The paternal idea of government has not taken deep root in American soil. Local authorities ought to be competent to deal with all problems relating to the safety of life, but the best guarantee of all is the business sense of the owners of places of amusement. A fatal theater fire is a bad card for the management.

France imported from the United States in 1903 $92,000,000 worth of products as against $109,000,000 from Great Britain and $69,000,000 from Germany. The bulk of the imports from the United States, or over $65,000,000, consisted of raw material not in competition with the resources of France, such as raw cotton, petroleum, tobacco, copper and cereals. The French tariff discriminates against this country, but it is the opinion of the United States consul that our manufacturers might improve their trade with France by a systematic effort at advertising their wares. Germany's trade in goods open to competition was about double that of the United States in 1903 and that of Great Britain treble.

Economy in medicine must be measured by two things—cost and effect. It cannot be measured by either alone. It is greatest in that medicine that does the most for the money—that radically and permanently cures at the least expense. That medicine is

MRS. HENRIETTA MARSH.

A VICTIM OF LA GRIPPE.

Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh, 709 W. 16th St., Los Angeles, Cal., President Woman's Benevolent Ass'n, writes:

"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks, and nothing I could do or take helped me until I tried Peruna."

"I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and I kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored, and I am glad that I gave that truly great remedy a trial. I will never be without it again."

In a letter dated August 31, 1904, Mrs. Marsh says: "I have never yet heard the efficacy of Peruna questioned. We still use it. I traveled through Kentucky and Tennessee three years ago, where I found Peruna doing its good work. Much of it is being used here also."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.

Modern Teacher and Modern School.

Professional promoters of education and friends of the schools outside of the ranks of professional workers are occasionally moved to exploit views which are at least novel if not radical. The idea behind these views is that a shaking up is a good thing for teachers, to keep them from getting into ruts. Recently it was affirmed that women are less competent than men to train boys in manliness and courage. The pros and cons in this discussion were suggestive and doubtless helpful, like most discussions undertaken in good faith. Recently the ideal for a model modern teacher has been outlined. He must be up to date in everything, we are told—a good mixer, able to dance, play pool, billiards and other games, must be a church member, interest himself in local public affairs, be magnetic, a society man and generally get out of the beaten tracks of old time pedagogy and at the same time command respect and obedience in the classroom.

The idea of what a school education should do for the pupil has changed with the times. Drilling in the three R's is no longer the sine qua non. Perhaps the increase of college bred men and women in the community creates a demand for school training which shall mold character and manners as well as drill the mind in book lore. A teacher wields a vast influence and stands next to the parent, if not ahead, in the young and growing mind. Up to date ideas and manners are essentials if the teacher would hold the lasting respect of those whom authority places under his or her leadership. At the same time the primary idea of a school is a place for lessons, and generally the brighter scholars have an influence upon the mass. These scholars demand that the teacher shall be capable at the desk and never at a loss in up to date knowledge. The teacher must be a pedagogue or lose ground. To hold the teacher of the past up to ridicule in comparing the old school with the new is unfair in the sense that formerly the compensation was too low to induce the best talent to devote a lifetime to teaching. This phase has happily changed. The profession is fairly well paid. Recently four employees in the civil service of a metropolitan city resigned their places, ranging in salary from $1,500 to $2,500 a year, to take positions in schools. Perhaps they had natural aptitude for school work, but the incident shows that the profession of teaching is no longer used as a stepping stone merely, but is a field for ambition and enterprise. This is as it should be, to hold in the ranks the fully up to date man especially. The more up to date he is the higher will be his aspirations for his own welfare. He must be human, we are told, if he would become a factor in the community, and if he is that he will reflect the characteristics of the people among whom he labors. The teacher of the past was to a certain extent a martyr to the cause of education, a situation that would be unfair with the modern idea of the school.

SENT MR. HAYLAND TO COLORADO FOR HIS HEALTH.

Says His Life Was Saved by Vinol.

People of Newark will be interested in the recovery of Mr. Hayland, as so many of our friends are continually being sent to one health resort or another as the only means of recovery. In writing of his cure from Denver, Colo., Mr. Hayland says: "I believe that Vinol, the new cod liver oil preparation has saved my life, and I wish to mention my case as it may be of value to others similarly affected."

"I was sent to Colorado with what my doctor said would develop into tuberculosis, and was so weak I was unable to work at my profession. Since taking Vinol my appetite has returned. I sleep well, feel very much stronger and am sure I shall soon be restored to perfect health. I cannot recommend Vinol too strongly, as it has done so much for me when all other medicines had failed."

Our well known druggist, Mr. Frank D. Hall, says: "The reason Vinol accomplishes such remarkable results when all other tonics and emulsions of cod liver oil fail is because it contains in a concentrated form all of the leading curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod livers, but without oil or grease, and it does not upset the weakest stomach."

Mr. Hall also freely offers to return money paid him for Vinol in every case where it fails to cure chronic coughs, colds, bronchial troubles, in cipient consumption, to make rich, red blood, increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, build up the run down, tired and debilitated, and make the weak strong.

Surely any person in Newark who is in need of such a remedy should try Vinol, as it is a simple preparation with remarkable curative powers and won't cost you a cent if it does you no good. Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

"WENT WET"

RESULT OF ELECTION TUESDAY IN JOHNSTOWN.

Big Vote Cast and Drys Lost by 16. Several Saloons to Start in a Few Days.

Johnstown, O., Nov. 23.—Johnstown had an election Tuesday on the liquor question and the town "went wet" by a majority of 16 votes. Every vote in town, except a few more than a dozen was out and the contest was a spirited one all day.

Out of 236 votes cast 195 were "dry" and 121 "wet."

One well known Johnstown man expressed it this way: "This town has been 'dry' for ten years, yet there has always been plenty to drink. The majority of the voters have come to the belief that it is better to have a saloon or two and derive some financial benefit from the traffic in liquor."

There will be probably three saloons and possibly a fourth one here soon.

IN THE MOON

Is There Life, Asks Waldemar Kaempfert in the December Booklovers Magazine.

It has been said that carbonic acid gas may be vomited from the moon's craters, besides water vapor. So slight is the attraction of the moon for other bodies that oxygen must escape from its surface with much the same rapidity as hydrogen escapes from the earth. By reason of its heaviness carbonic acid gas, however, must cling to the moon with greater tenacity—a circumstance that is of the utmost importance to the astronomers who have given us the new moon. Carbonic acid gas is the food of plants on the earth. Is it possible that it may nurture vegetation on the moon?

It happens that at times there may be observed on the moon areas that Professor Pickering—by whom they have been most closely studied—has termed "variable spots," because they darken very rapidly after sunrise and gradually disappear toward sunset. They cannot be caused by shadows; for shadows would be least visible when the sun is directly overhead. They appear most quickly at the equator and invade the higher altitudes after a lapse of a few days. In the polar regions they have never been seen. What are they? Organic life resembling vegetation, answer Professor Pickering and his adherents—vegetation that flourishes luxuriantly while the sun shines and withers when night falls. Given a planet on which the temperature probably never rises above the melting point of ice, on which water vapor and carbonic acid gas are discharged by volcanoes, is there anything in the nature of things why vegetation should not exist? It has been pointed out that certain lichens grow in regions of the earth where temperature never rises above the freezing point. The intense cold of the moon is, therefore, not a conclusive objection against the flourishing of plant life. A single day, it may be urged, is not sufficiently long for the development and decay of vegetation, but sixteen hours on the moon are little more than half an hour on the earth; a day lasts half a month, and may well be regarded as a miniature season. The absence of storms on the moon and the fact that a branch would be urged upward with but one sixth the effort required on the earth, are inestimable advantages of this moonlit lunar vegetation over terrestrial plant life.—W. B. Kaempfert in the December Booklovers Magazine.

As a result of the Sunday afternoon trouble in West Newark Frank Faucett, who with his father, runs the saloon in the Brothers building, filed an affidavit before Mayor Crilly charging that William Brown, George Gimpie, George Marker, Harry McFarland and John Coley "did riotously assemble for the purpose of killing affiant and that they did commit an assault and battery upon him and shot at him." The five men were all arrested.

The four prowlers who were arrested Monday night on Walnut street by Officer Scott, were fined $10 and costs each and sent to the county jail. Two are said to be ex-convicts.

GUS SEYMOUR

Is to Succeed Congressman-elect Taylor as Prosecutor in Franklin County, Ohio.

Those who have been predicting that Karl Wobbe would be appointed to succeed Prosecuting Attorney E. L. Taylor Jr., when the latter vacates the office to become the representative of the Twelfth district in Congress the latter part of February next, are only slightly wrong.

Republican party leaders have held numerous conferences of late, and are said to have determined to favor the appointment of Gus Seymour for the unexpired term with the understanding that he will not oppose Mr. Webster for the nomination for the office at the Republican primaries next summer. One of the local Republican party leaders is authority for this statement.—Columbus Citizen.

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde", with its well known story, will be seen at the Auditorium on Thursday Nov. 24, afternoon and night. The popularity of this celebrated play does not seem to wane. Season after season it returns to the cities where it has been several times, and its receipts increase with each succeeding visit. An explanation is found in the fact that the play appeals not only to the regular class of theatregoers, but its clientele includes the vast number who seldom go to the playhouse. I have been weak and sickly for the past four years, caused by irregular and careless regarding the laws of health, but about five months ago my condition became very serious. I had severe backache and suffered a constant dull pain in my head. I spent weary, painful days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me that I must have patience. His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it. I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general health improved my other troubles were gradually diminished and after five weeks' use of the Wine of Cardui I was once more a well and happy woman.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. Philip B. Evans, the jurors returned a verdict of guilty. Evans was indicted for maiming one Stephen Nessler, it being charged that, in a dispute over the right to use a certain roadway, Evans attacked Nessler with a club, permanently injuring his left arm. The court fixed the bond of Evans at $1,000. The court will probably pass upon the matter on a motion for a new trial next week, and if the motion is overruled, the defendant will be sentenced. State of Ohio vs. Waldo Thorp; indicted for grand larceny. Thorp was heretofore convicted, but on a hearing in the Circuit court, the judgment of conviction was reversed, the court finding that the evidence did not sustain the finding that the value of the property taken amounted to or exceeded $25, which the evidence must do in order to constitute grand larceny. The Circuit court also stated that as to the actual larceny, the evidence undoubtedly presented a weak case for the state. The prosecuting witness being absent from the state, and in view of the holding of the Circuit court in its construction of the evidence, a motion was made to nolle the indictment, which was done Smythe & Smythe.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits.

FROM THE TOP OF TELEPHONE POLE SHUTTS FELL.

Confined to Hospital Four Weeks. Henry Shutts is Now Home for a Short Visit.

Mr. Harry Shutts arrived from Ft. Wayne, Ind., Wednesday afternoon and will visit his grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Shutts at Granville until Friday when he will return to take up his work for the Bell Telephone company in Indiana.

Mr. Shutts' grandmother was 99 years old last month and will celebrate her 100th anniversary at the same time of the Granville centennial celebration. She is in vigorous health and is proud of the fact that she took care of her own garden last summer.

Mr. Shutts has recently been discharged from an Indiana hospital where he was confined for four weeks by reason of a fall from the top of a 40-foot pole at Fowler, Ind. The pole broke and he fell to the ground, landing upon his head and shoulders. The attending surgeons said it was a miracle that his neck was not broken.

When he left the hospital the telephone company gave him a first class position that of right of way man for the farmers lines in the vicinity of Ft. Wayne. He is "making good" with the company and will no doubt climb higher with the telephone company as he is a young man of push and energy.

nounces Hoover Reports to be Misleading.

Columbus, O., Nov. 23.—Penitentiary officials have been notified by the national department of justice to make a physical examination of Harry P. Scott. Such an order is never made until application is made to the department for executive clemency. The report as sent in by Dr. Thomas pronounces Scott to be in good health. It is known that petitions were circulated in Newark for Scott's pardon and that representatives of every bank, the principal business men of the city, nearly every lawyer in Newark and many other citizens signed the petition, but so far as known this application was never filed at Washington.

Attacks have recently been made on prison officials for allowing Harry Hoover, with whom Scott was implicated, to enjoy "unusual privileges." The stories, Hoover's friends claim, were timed so as to create feeling in favor of Scott, when his case reaches the President's hands. Once the best of friends, Scott and Hoover are now sworn enemies. Scott began his term July 8. The term was for 13 months, but taking off time for good behavior the term will expire in the spring.

The Columbus Citizen in its issue Tuesday evening printed the following:

In answer to the articles published in a local newspaper (the Columbus Press-Post) attacking penitentiary officials for permitting Harry Hoover and Richard Davis, United States prisoners, "unusual privileges," Chief Clerk Spock of the prison has made the following statements:

"It is charged that Hoover and Davis are allowed to sleep in the front office, to enjoy constitutional off the prison grounds and to be extended favors never accorded other prisoners. The stories are malicious and intentionally deceive the public. Both Hoover and Davis are expert bookkeepers. They are used as clerks, thus saving the state the expense of having clerks. It has always been the custom to assign prisoners to this work, which requires men of ability and book-keeping experience. They sleep in the front office because it is necessary for them often in the night to receipt for incoming prisoners. They have never been off the prison grounds, but are allowed to walk on the pen grounds the same as other trustees.

"I have always accompanied them as an officer of the prison. It is also charged that they dress as civilians with the exception of the gray trousers. True. So do the drivers for the warden.

"The articles are malicious in their intent and willfully mislead the reader."

DISTRICT ATTORNEY NOTIFIED.
Cincinnati, Nov. 23.—United States District Attorney Sherman T. McPherson has just received an application for a pardon from Harry P. Scott, serving a thirteen months' sentence in the Ohio penitentiary for having violated the Federal banking statutes. His main ground for a pardon is that he did not contemplate aiding or abetting a crime, but intended merely to help out a friend and therefore he is innocent of the charges made against him. His application for a pardon will be given consideration.

MANY KNIGHTS

ATTEND THE PYTHIAN JUBILEE AT COLUMBUS.

Local Kootah Temple Members to Compete for a Handsome $50
Silk Flag.

A large number of Knights of Pythias went to Columbus this morning to attend the Pythian Jubilee. Most of the Knights went via the interurban but some took the steam roads.

Kootah Temple, the local D. O. K. K. organization, is a competitor for the handsome $50 silk flag given as a prize for the largest per cent of membership present on this occasion.

The large body of Knights however, waited until afternoon to take the trolley cars for Columbus.

The Knights of Pythias of Licking county will be much in evidence at the great Pythian Jubilee in Columbus this afternoon and evening. Delegations from the various lodges of the county commenced arriving in the city at an early hour Wednesday and participated in the big parade that was made around the public square, under the auspices of Newark and Roland lodges at one o'clock, which was headed by the Buckeye Band. Immediately after the parade the Knights boarded the special cars that were in waiting and left for Columbus. Four of the large Buckeye Lake cars were necessary to accommodate those desiring to go to Columbus, and it is estimated that at least 350 Licking county Knights are in Columbus. The Buckeye Band accompanied the delegation.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff
Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him? It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and to prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vasoline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THANKSGIVING

SERVICES TOMORROW MORNING
AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

In the Evening There Will be Special
Services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

On Thanksgiving Day, different congregations of the city will unite in a service in the Central Church of Christ at 10 o'clock. Rev. L. C. Sparks will preach the sermon on "The Republic's Debt of Power." The service will begin promptly at the appointed hour and close in good time so as not to interfere with any special arrangements for Thanksgiving dinners. It is hoped that the people generally will allow nothing to prevent their coming together on this one day of all the year, for a service of praise and thanks before Him from whom all blessings flow. An offering for charitable work will be received.

The usual mid-week prayer service will not be held at St. Paul's Lutheran church this evening. In its stead, the members and friends of the parish will meet socially Thursday afternoon when the annual donation for local charity and the Oesterlin Orphans Home will be received and then assemble for a service of prayer and praise in the evening at 7:15. Everybody is made welcome at St. Paul's.

Short addresses will be delivered by Pastors Schmidt and Spald. The congregation of Holy Trinity church will worship at St. Paul's tomorrow night.

Thanksgiving Service.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, second floor of Memorial building, will hold Thanksgiving service at 10:20 a. m. Subject, "Thanksgiving." Golden text, "Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." Ephesians 5:20.

Fushima at the Fair.

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—An ovation was accorded Prince Fushimi at the Japanese gardens in his round of sight-seeing at the World's fair. On either side of the avenues along which the prince's carriage passed hundreds of his countrymen, many of them dressed in the costumes of their native land, were lined up and greeted the party with cries of "Banzai." The prince and his party were spectators at a drill and review of the Sixteenth United States Infantry sent here for guard duty after the close of the World's fair.

Vessel Missing.

St. Johns, Nov. 23.—The steamer Stord, coal-laden, from Sydney, C. B., for St. Johns, with a crew of 14 men, is now seven days out, whereas the passage usually occupies only 48 hours. It is feared that the steamer foundered in the severe gale which swept the south coast of this island on Saturday and Sunday. The schooner Orpheus, fish-laden, from Labrador for St. Johns, with a crew of 10 men, it is feared, has met the same fate.
